RSE Consultation Feedback

Our Relationships and Sex Education (RSE) consultation has now closed. The purpose of the consultation was to gather feedback on our proposed RSE curriculum. Thank you so much to everybody who took the time to attend the virtual meeting, complete the questionnaire. We received replies from 65 families and all replies were extremely positive about the proposed changes to our curriculum and the overwhelming consensus was that these changes reflected modern family living whilst also being respectful of the diversity within our local community.

We have now reviewed these responses and there has been no need to change any of the draft policy following the feedback. This means that the implementation of the RSE curriculum will begin in the Summer term. Please see the response data below.

If you require any further information in relation to our RSE curriculum, please do not hesitate to contact the school via email using the following email address office@weltonprimaryschool.com. Please type RSE query in the subject bar and this will help us to identify your query more efficiently.

Thank you again for your support and working together with us to bring the best outcomes for your children.

Kind Regards

Mrs Saleh
Deputy Headteacher

Mr Dixon

Question 6:

Is there anything that you would like to see included in the SRE Policy that is currently omitted?
Response 1:  Like religious studies where the difference in the way of life in different religions (burial, marriage, etc) is taught nicely, I propose the relationships differences in different communities must be included. This could be one key-point only, highlighting differences and may be not naming or pointing any community but teaching primary school kids that difference of opinion exists and should be respected.  This is taught throughout the whole Jigsaw PSHE / RSE programme – respect for all communities and religions.
Response 2:  A couple can be same sex  It is important to understand that any reference to adult relationships, whether LGBTQ or heterosexual people is NOT describing sexual activity as this would be inappropriate. Relationships lessons focus on respect and regard between people e.g., friendships and families. For further information please see the Jigsaw information leaflet (What does Jigsaw teach about LGBTQ issues?) on the school website.
Response 3:  Not at the present time
Response 4:  No - trust the school. Thanks
Response 5:  I am not sure how much teaching there is about same sex relationships, children who are conceived through donor IVF and so do not know their dads, transsexuals and people identifying as different genders. I think it is really important to develop understanding young and so that there is less misunderstanding and distrust. Thank you for the opportunity to consult on this matter and for taking the views of parents on board.

There are a variety of family situations in British Society and all children and families should not be made to feel less accepted. This is taught throughout the Jigsaw PSHE program at Welton. For further information please see the Jigsaw Leaflet 'Including and valuing ALL children. What does Jigsaw teach about LGBTQ issues?' on our website.

IVF is addressed within the Year 5 changing me puzzle piece when the children learn about conception. This puzzle piece helps them understand that sometimes people need IVF to help them have a baby.

Response 6:

No questions just very positive feedback on the programme and thanks to the school for setting up the session as it helped our understanding of what our children will be taught and how.

Questions that arose from the consultation meeting

Question 1:

Is it possible to be made aware when these sessions are delivered so that we can check in with our child at home to see if they have any further questions.

The school will hold short, year group meetings, delivered by SLT and class teachers to share the exact materials used in school prior to the Jigsaw puzzle piece 'Changing me' is delivered in the summer term.

Question 2:

The context can be the same. My question is, is it possible that Muslim children could be taught the subject separately by a Muslim teacher?

The school will hold further discussion with a member of the local Muslim community in regards this point.

Question 3:

Who will be delivering the RSE sessions, the Class Teacher or another member of staff?

All RSE lessons will be taught by a fully qualified teacher, and preferably the class teacher.
