

Unit 1.2 – Why Worship?

church	A place of worship for Christians.
alter	In a church where bread and wine are made special.
font	Holds holy water and is used in naming ceremonies.
lectern	Where the bible is read from in a church
holy days	A day set aside for an important religious festival.
pulpit	Where the vicar speaks to people from during a church service.

Christianity

Theme of Unit: Worship
To honour or show respect

What do you worship?

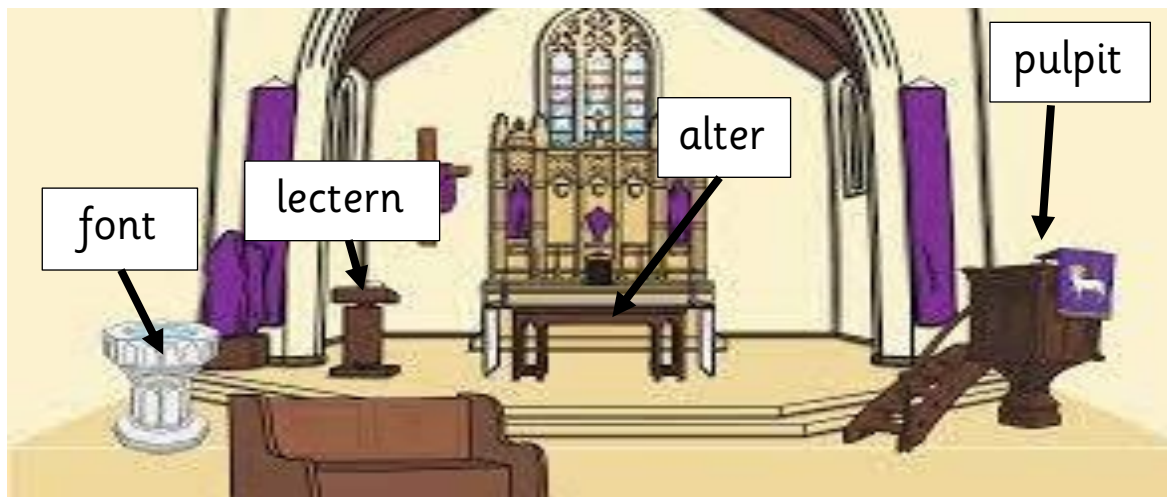

Social Sciences

Theology

What will I be finding out about?

- ✚ How and why do people of faith worship?
- ✚ How is a place of worship used?
- ✚ What makes a holy book special?

Unit 2.2 – Believing

God	The being who Christians believe created the world.
Moses	In the bible Moses saved people from slavery and was given special Christian rules for living
Adam and Eve	The first man & woman created by the Christian God.
Jesus Christ	The man who Christians believe is the son of God.
Judas	In the bible, Judas betrays Jesus and is extremely sorry afterwards.
Prayer	How Christians communicate with their God or Jesus Christ.

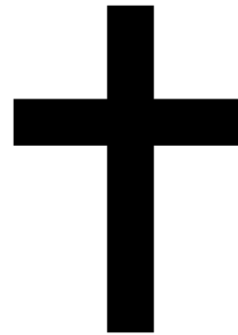

The story of Adam and Eve.

The story of Moses & The 10 Commandments.

Judas betrays Jesus.

Theme of Unit: Truth & Belief Religious beliefs and stories

Christianity

What do you believe?

Theology

What will I be finding out about?

✚ What do people of faith believe?

✚ What are the different ways in which people of faith express their beliefs?

Unit 3.2 – Founders of Faith

founder	The first person that started a religion.
leader	Someone who helps and guides people through their religion.
teaching	The lessons and learning given from a religious leader.
values	The different actions a person thinks are right or wrong.
guru	A teacher within the Sikh faith.
Guru Nanak or Bābā Nānak	The founder of Sikhism and the first of ten Gurus. Died over 450 years ago.
Guru Granth Sahib	The holy scripture within Sikhism. Guru Nanak helped to write The Guru Granth Sahib

Sikhism

Theology

Theme of Unit: Following Teachings
Learning from faith founders

Who or what do you follow?

You will be investigating the lives of two key founders of Sikhism. Through a theological lens, you will be considering some key beliefs and how modern-day Sikhs follow the teachings of those founders.

You may be already thinking of some interesting theological questions to ask throughout this unit, based on the images you can see.

What will I be finding out about?

How do the lives of faith founders influence believers?

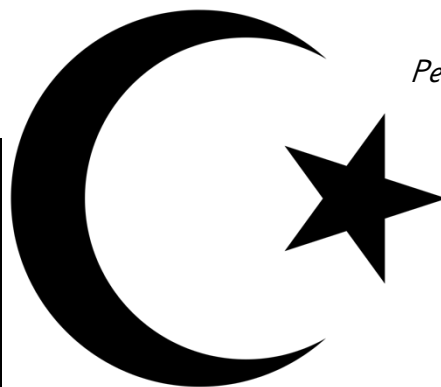

What do key religious figures teach?

Unit 4.2 – People who Inspire Us

Allah	The Arabic word for God. The word Allah is used throughout Islam when referring to the Muslim God.
saint	Someone who has earned a reputation by other Muslims as being a very good follower of Allah.
inspiration	A person or thing that motivates, uplifts, or gives someone the confidence to do something.
sacrifice	The act of giving up something to show loyalty or affection.
a cause	Good reason or enough of a reason.
altruism	Unselfish concern for the wellbeing of others.
justice & freedom	Justice is when people face consequences for negative choices. Freedom is when people can have a say over what happens in their own lives. A fair society has both justice and freedom.

During this unit you will be exploring the lives of Muslims who have been inspired by their faith to perform heroic deeds or dedicate their lives to a cause. What do you think would inspire a Muslim to act in a good way, using what you already know about Islam?

While looking through the social science lens you could also relate this to your own life. What has inspired your dreams and goals in Jigsaw?

Islam

Theme of Unit: Becoming Inspired Performing heroic deeds and dedicating oneself to a cause

What inspires you?

Social Science

What will I be finding out about?

★ How is commitment demonstrated in the lives and work of significant people of faith?

★ What motivates faith believers to get involved in different causes?

Unit 5.2 – Faith in Action

vocation	A strong feeling that you are suited to a career, cause or religion.
inspiration	A person or thing that motivates, uplifts, or gives someone the confidence to do something.
influence	The power or invisible action of a thing or person that causes some kind of effect on another.
meditation	Thinking quietly as part of a religious exercise.
Khalsa The 5 Ks	The Khalsa is the worldwide community of Sikhism which means 'the community of the pure'. The 5 Ks are things Sikhs wear to show he is part of The Khalsa.
guru	A teacher within the Sikh faith.
Guru Nanak or Bābā Nānak	The founder of Sikhism and the first of ten Gurus. Died over 450 years ago.
Guru Granth Sahib	The holy scripture within Sikhism. Guru Nanak helped to write The Guru Granth Sahib

In this unit you will be looking at significant people both within Sikhism and from a non-religious worldview. Using a theological lens, you will be exploring the influence these important people had in the past and discovering whether they still hold that influence today.

This unit gives you a good opportunity to think about those people who have influence over the choices that you make and why that is.

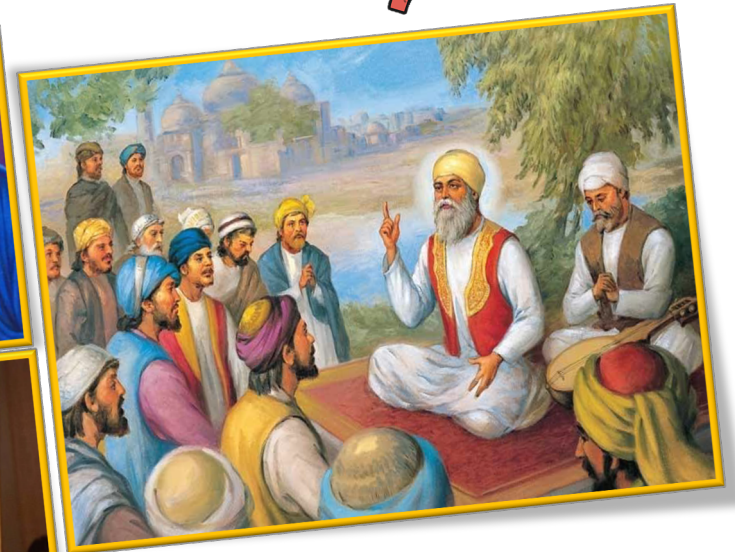

Sikhism

Theme of Unit: Influence

Do religious figures have influence on today's Sikhs?

Who has influence on the choices which you make?

Theology

What will I be finding out about?

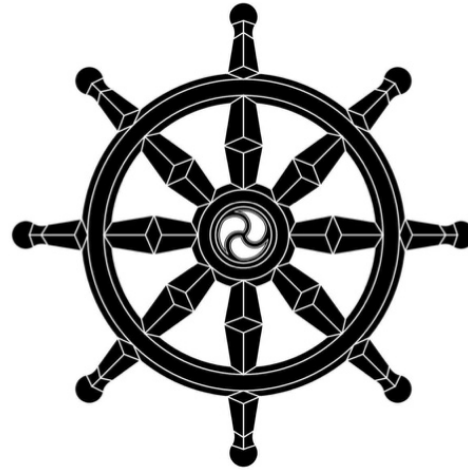

What do key religious figures teach?

How do the lives of faith founders influence believers?

Unit 6.2 – Living a Faith

belonging	The feeling of being accepted while feeling comfortable and at ease within a certain group.
celebrations	To make something special with gifts, parties or activities.
expressions	The act of showing thoughts or feelings.
ritual	A set way of going through a religious ceremony.
rites of passage	A religious ceremony which marks the change from one stage of life to the other. (EG: childhood to adulthood).
poy sang long	A 3 days celebration some Buddhist boys take to celebrate them starting their life journey as Buddhists.
the dharma	The teachings of Buddha. Buddhists rely of the dharma for lasting happiness.
the sangha	This is the worldwide community of Buddhists. The sangha may bring a sense of belonging for Buddhists.
Theravada	The oldest records of Buddha's teachings. While Buddhism in the modern day can take many forms, each can be related back to the Theravada.

Buddhism

Social Science

Theme of Unit: Identity
Religious identity & Community

What makes your personal identity unique?

What will I be finding out about?

In this unit you will be looking through the social science lens to explore the concept of religious identity through the way people live and practice their beliefs. You may wish to think of some interesting questions around rites of passage and how they can shape someone's personal identity.

Think about your own life experiences. How have these affected the sort of person that you are now?

Which religious rituals show identity and belonging for different traditions?

What is the value of participating in a religious festival or ritual?