

Peer Mentor comments - June 2019

1. One thing I like about being a Peer Mentor is that we get to help other people with their worries and concerns.
2. One thing I like about being a Peer Mentor is that we get to help other people be happy, and help with their worries and concerns.
3. I like being a Peer Mentor because I like helping people solve problems.
4. I like being a Peer Mentor because you get to sort out problems and help people be happy. It gives you some responsibility when teachers are busy.
5. Being a Peer Mentor is an important job and requires patience and problem solving. Sometimes people need help, and to be the person who helps them brings the feeling of pride. In order to be a Peer Mentor, you need to be kind and show sympathy. The role helps you to expand your skills in communication and intelligence, encouraging the person with the problem to feel safe and happy.
6. I enjoy being a Peer Mentor because I get to help people by making them feel happier on the playground.
7. I like helping people when they are having a bad day or when they are feeling down.
8. I enjoy helping people when they are in need of some guidance, and comforting people when they're having a difficult day. Being a Peer Mentor has helped develop many skills, including knowing how to respond to people when they are sad, and has built my maturity.
9. I enjoy being a peer mentor because you get to sort out people's problems and develop leadership skills.
10. I love improving the school by helping people to be happier. The role of a Peer Mentor helps boost my confidence and communication with other people.